Three Questions for the Family

2 Kings 4:8-37

1. Note the order of the questions.
2. The questions point out what is truly important.

Remembering that I'll be dead soon is the most important tool I've ever encountered to help me make the big choices in life. Because almost everything – all external expectations, or pride, or fear of embarrassment or failure – these things just fall away in the face of death, leaving only what is truly important.

3. Wealth, in no way, lessens the occasion of heartache in your family.
4. In our darkest hour, trust God.
5. The key to "All is Well" is uniting with Jesus.

³For you have died, and your life is hidden with Christ in God.
Colossians 3:3
